The purpose of these programs is to provide students with pleasurable experiences in listening to French. No attempt is made to teach the language, although some word review appears occasionally on early programs in the series. The programs are intended to supplement the classroom lessons through providing further opportunity to hear the spoken language. They should also prove valuable in classes where French is not yet being taught, by providing an enjoyable introduction to French as the language of everyday use.

The vocabulary will be simple. However, it is not important if viewers miss some words. A positive attitude toward the French language, along with reinforcement of classroom work through additional exposure to the rhythm, intonation and pronunciation of the spoken language, are important contributions which the programs will make.

The first six programs will present delightful versions of a well-known song and two fairy tales. Further bulletins will be sent to schools to inform them of later topics in this series.

Titles of the first six programs are:

1. Frère Jacques, Part 1
2. Frère Jacques, Part 2
3. Les Trois Ours, Part 1
4. Les Trois Ours, Part 2
5. Le Petit Chaperon Rouge, Part 1
6. Le Petit Chaperon Rouge, Part 2
